Constitutional Litigation

2023

1 Introduction

1.1 Overview

Constitutional Litigation is an elective course that counts as a credit in the LLB degree offered in the Faculty of Law.

This course is designed to reach the following goals:

- to introduce students to the practice and the procedures involved in litigating constitutional issues;
- to critically analyse remedies in constitutional litigation and
- to develop and refine critical thinking in respect of certain aspects of constitutional law.

1.2 Credit value

10 credits. This translates to 100 notional hours, including contact time and independent work.

1.3 Assumptions of prior learning

It is assumed that students:

- have a working knowledge of key constitutional concepts;
- are capable of independent work;
- know how and where to access resources such as textbooks, legislation and law reports in the law library;
- are capable of extracting and integrating relevant principles from various sources;
- are capable of applying legal problem-solving techniques;
- are capable of applying legal referencing conventions.

2 Outcomes

- 2.1.2 to collect, analyse and evaluate information;
- 2.1.3 to recognise problem solving contexts;
- 2.1.4 to identify and solve problems;
- 2.1.5 to communicate effectively;
- 2.1.6 to participate as responsible citizens and
- 2.1.7 to be culturally sensitive.

2.2 Intended specific outcomes

At the end of this course the student must be able to

- 2.2.1 explain and apply selected procedural rules of constitutional litigation;
- 2.2.2 explain and critically appraise remedies in constitutional litigation;
- 2.2.3 critically analyse selected topics in constitutional law.

3 Teaching method

This course is taught by way of two lectures per week. Seminar work will form an essential part of the course. Students are expected to prepare for lectures by doing the prescribed readings beforehand and are encouraged to engage in lecture room discussions. All the prescribed material will not be addressed directly in lectures. Students are expected to take responsibility for their learning by independent study according to the guidance provided by the detailed course outline. Students are invited to discuss problems with the lecturer.

7 Evaluation

This course will be reviewed and updated by the lecturer on an annual basis. Evaluation of the course will take place in accordance with the evaluation cycle set up by the Faculty. This means that the course will be evaluated at least once in every three years. Evaluation (if undertaken) will take place at the end of the third term to enable the lecturer to provide feedback to the students on the evaluation and to address any complaints. Students are invited to discuss their difficulties and problems with this course either personally or through their student representative with the lecturer.
